Schmuckstück, wenn es um YA Literatur kommt Von Helpful Advice 'Edna in the Desert' von Maddy Lederman geschrieben ist ein echtes Juwel, wenn es um YA Literatur geht, liefert eine groe glaubwürdige Geschichte ber eine junge Frau in der anderen Umgebung platziert wer wird eine Menge ber sich selbst und die Welt, die sie whrend umgibt lernen einen besonderen Sommer. Die Hauptfigur, ein 13-jhriges Mdchen namens Edna, ist eine regelmige

Sie weiß, wie man mit Menschen umzugehen und die Dinge ihren Weg, aber in diesem Sommer alles wird sich ändern - Edna die Eltern entscheiden, sie in ein einfaches Haus in der Mojave-Wüste im Sommer zu senden und Edna Großeltern. Obwohl Wüsten kann als etwas faszinierend klingen, das ist eigentlich eine wirklich langweilige Ort, ein einfaches Haus ohne jede Spur von Technologie - etwas, das sehr schwer, sich für Teenager von Edna Alter umzugehen wäre. Und das ist gar nicht das Schlimmste - ihre Großmutter nicht zu viel reden und Opa leidet unter PTSD, die sie sowohl eine schlechte Gesellschaft macht. Die Wendung, die Geschichte in die andere Richtung schieben wird Situation, in der Edna wird sich selbst zu finden sein wird, verloren in der Wüste. Es wird sie Johnny, ein Junge 4 Jahre älter, und die Interaktion zwischen beiden Hauptfiguren und die Folgen für den ganzen Sommer Erfahrung zu erfüllen und gleichzeitig die Geschichte entfaltet wird dieses Buch eine angenehme und einzigartige Erfahrung zu machen ... 'Edna in the Desert ist ein Buch, das mit seiner universellen Thema wird verständlich zu Jugendlichen und jungen Menschen auf der ganzen Welt zu sein - aber das Buch forte sind seine Zeichen, vor allem Edna, die so glaubwürdig ist, so dass Leser, im Inneren übertragen werden der Kopf eines Teenagers. ORIGINAL REVIEW IN ENGLISH 'Edna in the Desert written by Maddy Lederman is a real gem when it comes to YA literature, delivering a great believable story about a young woman placed in different environment who is going to learn a lot about herself and the world that surrounds her during one special summer. The main character, a 13 years old girl called Edna, is regular rebel teen, smart but arrogant in sense that most of kids of her age these days are. She knows how to deal with people and get things her way but this summer everything is going to change Edna's parents will decide to send her at simple home in the Mojave Desert for the summer, to Edna's grandparents. Though desert may sound as something intriguing, actually this is a really boring place, a basic house without any trace of technology - something that would be very hard to deal with for teen of Edna's age. And this is not at all the worst part her Grandma doesn't talk too much and Grandpa suffers from PTSD that makes them both a bad company. The twist that will push story into the different direction will be situation in which Edna will find herself, lost in desert. There she will meet Johnny, a boy 4 years older, and the interaction between two main characters and the consequences for the whole summer experience while the story unfolds will make this book a pleasant and unique experience. Edna in the Desert is a book that with its universal topic will be understandable to teens and young people all around the globe but the book forte are its characters, most of all Edna that is so believable, enabling reader to be transferred inside the head of a teenager. The result is story full of teen strong emotions such as rage, love and desire to become better person that overall made reading of this book a powerful and unforgettable experience. Therefore, though in the first place I asked myself am I the right person for reading it, actually Maddy Lederman's with her book managed to hook me completely and I cannot recommend it enough for YA lovers the author wrote a book that can be read multiple times and recommended for all your friends. I was given a copy of this book by the author for the purpose of unbiased review, while all the presented information is based on my impressions.
