The last two sentences summed it up for me! I totally love Erik. He is a big huge jackass but he is sooo good at it. I am hooked. Erik despises the complaining and all of the needs that humans need met on a daily basis. It infuriates him that he tries to block Astrid

out. Yet, he is drawn to her as a moth to a flame. Will she be the demise to his pack? Astrid does have to upper mouth, Hand when they finally make it back to the den. I found that part very exciting and interesting that one act can make this Alpha crumble Viola does a great job of leaving you screaming for more! Big Sigh I guess I will have to wait a few more weeks for Part five.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Emotions complicate things Von Donna Hokanson After Eriks declaration to the Siluit pack and what he said to her, has Astrid not sure what to think anymore. The two of them tread their way back to Eriks den and the Amarak territory. Erik is starting to realize just how fragile Astrid is and that he has some unknown fascination with her and wants her to himself. Then there are the Bear shifter coming even closer to and on to the Amarak territory. Very entertaining installment to the series. Well written and very enjoyable to read.

Kurzbeschreibung Bad news awaits Erik back at the den, but it isnt enough to deter him from taking every opportunity to mate with Astrid. Meanwhile, Astrid begins testing the new limits of Eriks patience, with unexpected results. This is part four of an ongoing story and is not a standalone.
