pulls the girls hair, sneaks bugs in her desk, and chases her till she screams. Why does he do this because he really loves her? Princess Ari has been tormented as long as she can remember by the pure-blood Rurik. Now that Ari and Rurik are adults the time has come for the Princess to take a mate. Their custom is she will drink from a chalis of sweet drink and herbs. At this precise time Rurik is in the great hall feasting and cannot wait for the ceremony to end. Does his heart belong to Ari? Will these two share the mating bed and finish what started all these years ago? I fell in love with this story from the beginning. Michelle Pillow does a great job of weaving years of pent-up love between these two. You can read this as a standalone, but seriously all of Michelles work is great.
