third installment of the series, in which we get to know the mysterious Brad a little better. When the fate (it must be fate, right?) crosses the paths of Jeremy and Brad for the second time, the two are plunged into the abyss of passion and pleasure until Brad's secrets start to resurface. I loved reading Jeremys story, he is a sensitive poetic soul, easily infatuated, or perhaps it was also an evil charm of Cote D'Azur in play. Fasten your belts and turn on your wipers: the journey from the fitting room in Cannes to the wine bar in Nice is going to be steamy. If you like sexy and surreal - Lou Watton is definitely your author.
