Great Read Von Lily M.I downloaded "Raven" by Shelly Pratt when it was offered for free and I must say I'm glad I picked it up. It is a great novel with mystery, adventure and romance. Great storyline, the characters are well developed and interesting...I enjoyed reading this.

KurzbeschreibungA young adult paranormal romance. Standalone novel suitable for teen audiences.Contains one sex scene. RAVENA dark force has descended in an age where people are no longer alone. The glitterati of the Gold Coast has vanished, and along with it, the sun and surf that was once synonymous with the tourist hot spot. Instead, a new species walks among the humans, terrorizing and pillaging their way along the dark and fog-ridden coast line. They move undetectable but for a simple marking, and it's this marking that Aiyana sees one day as she walks through the dark city. Curiosity and an intense desire to see the brooding stranger again lead her to a young man whose future is inexplicably woven with hers a destiny preordained by a curse spelled by her grandmother decades before. As Aiyana explores a new romance, she has to question the true intentions of this stranger. Does she hold the key to helping him? Would she be willing to do so at any cost? *First published as an ebook in 2013. Original version edited by Jennifer Roberts-Hall. Previously published under the pseudonym Stevie Harlow.<http://shellypratt.net> Available now: THE CONTINUANCE OF CHRISTOPHER BIRD - a vintage tale suitable for all audiences.
