Knaak writes another great one!Von Ein KundeKnaak has always been one of my favorite Dragonlance authors ever since I read the Legend of Huma. His latest tale of the minotaurs does not feature Kaz but his descendent Aryx. Aryx is an impressive character, but instead of developing, he constantly acted as the reluctant hero. This was a little annoying. Also there are a few parts that really drag. But what I liked was that Knaak unlike other authors in the series, he gives us new creatures. The crustacean creatures are very cool and interesting. I was glad when I found out it wasn't just going to be another book where the heroes would fight fire dragons and shadow wraiths(That was getting boring after four books of it). Other authors should learn from Knaak's creativity. Instead of sticking to the same formula, Dragonlance authors should expand their imagination in the world of Krynn. Knaak is truly one of the best, keep up coming Richard.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. The best of the Chaos War SeriesVon Ein KundeThis book is the best of a great series and I don't say that lightly. I will even include Dragons of the Summer Flame. Although it would face competition from The Doom Brigade, DoSF, and perhaps even Mt. Nevermind (maybe) this book beats them all and more. If you like minotaurs you could say it is the best DL book ever. It is very good (keep in mind Aryx didn't know what he was talking about when he said Raistlin couldn't do what Sargonnas did in that circus.Sargonnas lives!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nicht grade der Hit...Von Ein KundeIch finde das Buch ziemlich enttaeuschend. In meinen Augen beschreibt es nicht mehr als ein Abfolge von Gemetzeln zwischen den Magori und den Minotauern. Die Handlung ist ziemlich vorhersehbar (Schlacht auf Schiff, Schlacht am Strand 1, Schlacht am Strand 2, Schlacht auf Schiff 2, Schlacht am Strand 3) und wenig interessant. Ausserdem sind die Charaktere nicht gerade detailliert gezeichnet, ihre Motivation weitestgehend unklar. Sorry fuer diese harte Kritik...
