In his eyes, anyway. Hes lost the lower half of his right leg, as well as the memory of much of his adult life. When he returns home, his brother takes him to their beach house on the north-west coast of New Zealand to recuperate, hoping the peace and quiet will help him heal. Hamish can remember only one thing from the last ten years the name Rose. At the beach house, he meets the girl his brother tells him he loved and lost before he returned to Afghanistan.
