Von Gelegenheitsleser
Zwei Guardians, die Mutter Erde und Vater Himmel helfen sollen, den zunehmenden Verfall der Erde aufzuhalten oder gar umzukehren, entdecken ihre Liebe zueinander. Als Dritter im Bunde gesellt sich zu ihnen der König der Kojoten-Shifter, der unfähig ist, seinen eigenen Wert oder die Liebe der beiden anderen zu erkennen, da er starke Schuldgefühle hegt, weil er sein Rudel nicht vor den "Huntern" retten konnte. Seine starken Beschützer müssen viele Abenteuer bestehen, bis sie zur vollen Befriedigung aller drei kommen können. Dieser 2. Teil der Refuge Shifter Serie ist nicht mehr ganz so logisch, und ich meine, man versteht am Anfang wenig, wenn man nicht den ersten Teil gelesen hat, was ich sehr empfehle. Die Charaktere sind klar strukturiert und wandlungsfähig. Auch die Nebenfiguren werden liebevoll dargestellt. Man kann der Autorin nicht vorwerfen, mit Sexszenen im ersten Teil gespart zu haben, sie passten aber in den Gesamtzusammenhang. In diesem Teil hatte ich manchmal den Eindruck, als ob sie meinte, dass mal wieder eine "dran" sei, um die Leser nicht "erschlaffen" zu lassen. Insgesamt aber eine spannende und anregende Lektüre. Ich freue mich schon auf den Katzen-Shifter und den Steinmann im 3. Teil.

Kurzbeschreibung
Three lonely souls find each other in the midst of an all out war between the shifters and the Hunters. Mother Earth gave Ryker Allen rebirth over a century ago, his main purpose to protect Mother's shifter children. Ryker has never begrudged his duties, but the loneliness is something he'll never get used to. Daniel was the King of the Coyotes until a mistake led to the decimation of his species. Alone and half-dead, he was taken in by a pack of wolf shifters as a pet for the Alpha's mate. When he's given a chance to live as an Alpha once again, he's reluctant to accept, afraid he's no longer worthy to lead. Hakan is the son of Father Sky. He was awarded rebirth over a thousand years ago to protect the Native American Bird Shifters. When animosity towards Native Americans escalated, Hakan's charges took to the sky permanently, leaving him without a purpose. He's lived his long life alone, waiting for the day he can once again serve his Father. Three men, three very different backgrounds, one thing in common. Loneliness. Can these three souls come together to form a family?
