KurzbeschreibungThe second book in Rosanne Bittners bold Savage Destiny series continues the love story of Zeke and Abbie Monroe. For the first five years of her marriage Abbie lives among the Cheyenne, learning their customs and beliefs and giving birth to a son who is as wild and free as his Native American family, and a daughter who will one day be forced to choose between her Indian and white blood. Through real historical events involving the government and Native Americans, Zeke and Abbie cling to one another through danger and torn loyalties. This story vividly depicts the right and wrong of both sides in the bloody conflicts that arose as the West was settled. Through it all Zeke strives to reach the point where he can provide his Abbie with a real white womans home, where she can set a prized family heirloom, a mantle clock, over a fireplace in a house with real wood floors and a cooking hearth. Though his heart is as wild as his Cheyenne blood, Zeke will give up that life for his beloved Abbie.PRAISE:Power, passion, tragedy, and triumph are Rosanne Bittners hallmarks. Again and again, she brings readers to tears. ~Romantic TimesExtraordinaryBittners characters spring to life. ~Publishers WeeklyABOUT THE AUTHOR:Named one of the Pioneer Authors of Romance by Romantic Times, Rosanne Bittner is the author of fifty-five historical romance novels, most set in the American West of the 1800s. Her next novel, Desperate Hearts, will be published by Sourcebooks in September 2014.
