Great book!Von VanessaThis book was amazing!I was expecting a lot of similarities to Victoria's story (the first Gardella series) and was pleasantly surprised when I realized that the whole story was different. The only similarities are the amazing characters. Man, it is like you want to get to know them and be their friend.The book begins with Sebastian (can we ask for more?) clarifying who the bad guys are and that the protagonist is in danger.Just like in the first Gardella series, it begins with the dreams. Mmm! And Macey does not know what to do with that. She has no family around, no aunt to guide her...I liked very much that once she finds out about the world of vampires, she takes her time to think about it. She does not just take the easy way out, although she wants to. She analyses it. She is no fool. And even before accepting the legacy, that Macey Gardella kicks a$$! She is strong, independent and motivated. I liked her a lot.Now, about the guy, he was hot. Macey's and Grady's chemistry is soooo cool!Love scene was beautiful, sexy and detailed. But, even though, this character was good, I could not connect with him. Maybe because I know all other male characters from previous books and he is the "new guy in town"....And, this was a surprise... Chas is there! How? Why? There is no explanation about that in this book (damn, when is the next one ready?). But let me tell you, I loved Vampire Narcise. That book was the best from that trilogy. And I was devastated about all that happened with Chas. Good to see he is here. And, hopefully, he can have a HEA this time. PLEASE!!! During the whole book, I wanted to save Chas. He does not show the greatest personality, he pushes people away, he is tormented and cold. He reminds me a bit of Pesaro. But could anyone top Max Pesaro? Hottest cold guy ever!For the ones, who have read the first series, you will find a more mature, older and responsible Sebastian. He is still adorable, a bit playful and sexy-beyond-words but he also shows a more serious side, a side that has evolved after living as a vampire-Venator for one century. He suffers and I felt his pain.There are other things that also will need explanation in the future, like this book about vampires which was written by G. S. He was a bad guy in the old series. I wonder why he wrote it. Also, I wonder if we are going to have a love triangle. In the first Gardella, the love triangle began in book 3, but it was easy to see it coming already in book 1. But now, I do not see any love triangle possibilities.Great twist near the end. I didn't see that one coming. What is Macey going to do now? How is she going to get out of that one? I am really looking forward the next book!!!!!!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich.
