remarkable new series from a new author for me. I most definitely recommend this Must Read Book. It grabbed me from the Prologue Deep in the Underworld there was no way I could stop reading let alone put it down. Lol salad was dinner. The God Nergal and the Goddess Ereshkigal were both from the underworld. The Goddess took the thirteen gods and made them invisible. They loved to play games with the 13 gods lives. Being invisible the gods did not panic but planned building a castle for themselves in the Blue Hills forest only they could see. Each God had his own unique capabilities to bring to the table. Marduk is the Thunder God, he couldn't believe it, here he was at the beach naked in all his glory, only to look up to see a human looking at him. She can see me, running he loses her only to find her again to lose her again. Tess Abelard so far has had a very hard life. After her mother died it took a toll on the whole family. Tess and her twin sister began to have dark nightmares. Turning to alcohol turn the sisters into mindless drunks, leaving her brother no choice but to give the twins ultimatums which lead to her sister leaving. Than things went bad to worse and the nightmares began again. Pulling her to another town. Why is this happening to her? Who is this man? Will I be safe? I really loved this book, can't wait for BOOK 2 and I hope you love it too. I was gifted this ARC for an honest and truthful review.

Kurzbeschreibung Marduk, Mesopotamian god of thunder, has been invisible for hundreds of years, his punishment for leaving an entire civilization to wither and die...all for the love of a woman. Now, the gods seem to be reaping a great deal of pleasure at his expense once again for its another little bit of a woman who has the power to make him whole. She lights his formerly passionless form on fire, but he'll have to battle more than the gods who placed him and his brothers in this purgatory to win her heart and her body. Some demons must be faced to be defeated, even if they are hers. Tess has straightened her life out. That means no alcohol, no risk, and most of all NO MEN! But this god-like creature she first sees naked on the beach makes her forget the horrors wrought by another and consider the passion zinging through her veins. Can she take such a risk again without sacrificing her sobriety and her life?
