skeleton - not a ghost :-)) Von Annina I very much enjoy this series with Sid as the skeleton family companion. Sid doesn't consider himself a ghost. And indeed there are some differences between him and a ghost. He always has to hide in the armoire when someone knocks on the door. And I always hope all curtains are closed when he sits in the chair reading or watching TV, haha. In this volume he has a chance to get some fresh air. That's why Sid doesn't mind wearing a full-body dog suit and going as Scooby-Doo along with Georgia Thackery as Velma to the Halloween Howl. When a girl gets murdered at the haunted house, everybody, except the Thackerys, think the Scooby-Doo-Person must be the murderer. Will Georgia find a way to get Sid out of the murder-scene without anyone noticing and if not Scooby-Doo, who is the murderer? 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Laugh out loud funny!!!! Von Jeanne Adamek Oh, this was a wonderful book! Perfect for October here, which tend to be dark and dismal. This story was the opposite. I loved the description of the haunted house! I really enjoyed "meeting" Georgia's parents, and found that they added a lot to the story, as did all the normal characters. It was a pleasure going through the mystery with them! Especially Sid. And Sid is the reason that I feel that Leigh Perry is an exceptionally talented author. I accepted everything that the author wrote about him. Without question. I am definitely looking forward to the next mystery in this series, and hoping that I do not have to wait too long...! And I hope that I will see more of Brownie... 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Who was the murderer - thrilling until the last page Von Kindle-Kunde Ich liebe mystery Krimis und da ich Englisch besser lesen als schreiben kann, fasse ich mich kurz: great book! Thanks :-)

Kurzbeschreibung Sid the Skeleton bones up on clues to solve a Haunted House homicide in this mystery from the author of The Skeleton Takes a Bow What holiday could bring more warmth to a skeleton's chest cavity than Halloween? And when you're a living skeleton who's not supposed to be seen outside the house, it's a welcome chance to get some fresh air and rub bony elbows with people. That's why Sid doesn't mind wearing a full-body dog suit and going as Scooby-Doo along with Georgia Thackery's Velma to the Halloween Howl. Sid can't wait to go through the Haunted House but he gets rattled for real when a genuine dead body is discovered. Trapped inside as the police quickly seal off the crime scene, Sid makes no bones about dropping the dog suit and posing as an actual skeleton. This murder is a skull-scratcher, but as long as Sid is on the inside, he might as well case the joint to figure out who used the cover of darkness to commit the perfect crime. Pressestimmen Praise for the Family Skeleton Mystery Series: "Dr. Georgia Thackery is smart, resourceful, and determined to be a great single mom to her teenager. Georgia is normal in every respect except that her best friend happens to be a skeleton named Sid. You'll love the adventures of this unexpected mystery-solving duo." #1 New York Times bestselling author Charlaine Harris Adjunct English professor Georgia Thackery makes a charming debut in A Skeleton in the Family. Georgia is fiercely loyal to her best friend, Sid, an actual skeleton who is somehow still alive. When Sid sees someone he remembers from his past life who later turns up dead Georgia finds herself trying to put together the pieces of Sid's past as she works to hunt down a killer. Amateur sleuth Georgia, and her sidekick, Sid, are just plain fun! Sofie Kelly, New York Times bestselling author of Faux Paw No bones about it, Leigh Perry hooked me right from the beginning. An unusual premise, quirky characters and smart, dry humor season this well-told mystery that kept me guessing until the very end. It's too bad Perry's sleuth is fictional! I'd invite Georgia over for dinner in a heartbeat. Bailey Cates, New York Times bestselling author of Magic and Macarons "A delightful cozy with a skeleton who will tickle your funny bone."
