Bookworm Von Ein Kunde This is the charming tale of a woman who has been rejected by the family of the man she loved. She conceals her heartbreak and uses her wonderful dog to locate lost people. When she is called in to find a missing child and meets the man responsible for her rejection again, she can't believe that he has had a sincere change of heart. However, as she helps him find his runaway adopted niece, she realizes the change in him is real. Then, not only are three hearts healed, they're joined. Ms. Whisneand has a rare knowledge of the canine heart, as well, which adds greatly to the enjoyment of this book.
