More or less disappointedVon Anne MeinigWehen I read this book's Description I couldn't wait to start Reading but now all I can say as a reader is "meh!" At the beginning both Characters clash wonderfully in their opposites and. In Kyle's case his arrogant/ignorance but after only 20 Pages all he seems to be is a Lust crazed human and Sev, the halfbreed becomes a Bastard, although in his Defense the Writer leaves Sev's feelings as mere presumptions, but gives us no real idea, what makes Sev tick. For me the Book lost its spice about half way through.

KurzbeschreibungKyle Johnson works as a detective for Dark Woods PD. He's kept his life simple ever since his lawyer boyfriend publicly dumped him to make a go of his marriage. After being dragged out of the closet in such spectacular fashion, Kyle threw himself into his work and swore off romance. Until now...Tall, dark and devastatingly handsome, Detective Severin Valdez is called in to partner with Kyle on a case. A vampire serial killer is on the loose in Dark Woods and Sev's got a connection with the vampire world that has Kyle doubting his new partner's loyalty and his own ability to partner with the half vampire.The two are inexplicably drawn to each other and even though Kyle tries to fight the attraction, after a night working undercover things get out of hand and one thing leads to another with life changing consequences for the two and for Sev, in particular.As the hunt for the killer heats up, can Kyle trust Sev to do his job after his father makes a reappearance in his life? Can they fight the undeniable heat between them, or will their desire for each other result in deadly consequences?The Vampire's Mate is a novella set in the city of Dark Woods. This novella contains explicit language and gay sexual scenes. It is intended for adult readers only.KurzbeschreibungKyle Johnson works as a detective for Dark Woods PD.
